

347 B C

1965-1967

The legal lending rate was 5% interest in Rome. By decree
the actual ave rate was about 12%.

-3400
-347 n 347BC ?

Ezra officially gave the months
Babylonian names (Nissan, Iyar etc.)
as a form of commemoration of the event that had been Hebrew 2447 cal -1314 (Moses leads out of Israel)

347BC

---

Plato died

347BC

TITUS MANLIUS TORQUATUS &
GAIUS PLAUTIUS were Consuls.

The interest rate was reduced from  $8\frac{1}{3}\%$  to  $4\frac{1}{6}\%$  and debts were made payable one fourth down and the remainder in three Annual installments what did the most to lighten the burden was the omission of war tax and of the military levy.